

Will YOU be asked to Host or MC any events in 2007?

Industry experts and authors of CD series, 'How to MC Almost Anything' share their skills in public workshops

Whether you are chairing a board or sales meeting, professional development workshop, conference or perhaps emceeing an awards event, with the appropriate skills and knowledge, you can create a smooth and successful event time and time again.

Workshop topics and content:

In this half-day programme, you will learn to master the microphone, keep your event on time, deliver your key objectives and handle challenges, plus

- Eliminate fears associated with stage fright
- Speak with confidence, consistency and clarity
- Engaging your audience
- How to create event momentum
- Working with lighting, cameras and music
- Understand timing and event protocol
- Introductions, thanks you's and goodbyes
- Event coordination and run sheets
- Introductions, thanks you's and goodbyes
- Working with VIP's other speakers or sponsors
- Present your MC image and style appropriately
- Understand the importance of room and stage dynamics
- Represent yourself and your organisation competently
- Appropriate humour and ad libs

Includes networking, workbook, tea/coffee, snacks and CD series 'How to MC Almost Anything'.

Follow up support and mentoring available.

Your Workshop Facilitators:

Camille Valvo B.A., ASM

www.emcee.com.au

Educated in Japan and the USA, Camille is an accomplished industry presenter and published writer. She is a full time emcee who understands the pivotal role required of emcees, hosts and presenters in making events successful.

Her people credentials span 30 years in frontline management and customer service training in the international and domestic retail, hospitality, airline and events management industries.

Camille is an accredited speaker and former 2006 President National Speakers Association of Australia - Sydney NSW Chapter. She is involved with over 90 speaking and MC events each year throughout Australia, SE Asia and the USA.

Rob Salisbury B.Com., CSP

www.strategicresources.com.au

Rob is among only 490 speakers worldwide to have earned CSP designation (Certified Speaking Professional) the highest international professional speaking accreditation from the NSA and NSAA.

Former President 2001 to 2003 of the National Speakers Association of Australia - Sydney NSW Chapter, his background includes Fortune 500 experience and as a contributing author to eight best selling books and educational learning programs.

He has been engaged as a certified trainer, speaker and emcee for over 1600 events in the USA, Canada, Mexico, Japan, New Zealand, Australia, Singapore, Hong Kong, Vietnam and Thailand.

For More Information . . .

Also enquire about our training, consulting and presentation courses

Tick the box associated to the workshop location and an information pack will be emailed or posted to you.

- Brisbane Sydney Melbourne Auckland Perth
 Saigon Singapore Hong Kong Bangkok Hanoi

E-mail to Camille Valvo at camille@emcee.com.au or post:

First Class Communications
PO Box 3233, Kirrawee NSW 2232
Australia or telephone 0418 403 062

Name _____

Company _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Postcode _____

Phone Office _____

Mobile _____

E-mail _____

