

Our master of Ceremonies, Camille Valvo has 'people' credentials based on her 30 years in the customer service frontline.

Born in the US, educated in Japan and Australian by choice since 1981, Camille is an accomplished industry presenter, published writer and full time emcee.

An accredited speaker, and past President of the NSW chapter of the National Speakers Association, Camille lives near the beautiful Royal National Park in Sydney Australia with a multitude of wildlife including her husband and teenaged daughter.

Please welcome Camille Valvo
